FIGHTING TO THE FINISH.

The League Premiership.

Great Doings in the Field.

By "Chatterer."

In this week's notes it is only right to state that, although "Chatterer" holds the floor, his companion in ink—"Wide-awake"—is collaborating with him in the desire and effort to please the football public with the best and latest news concerning the game and the players and people who are talked about.

* * *

One satisfactory feature in connection with the first semi-final match last Saturday was the general expression of appreciation of the "Record," which published (having the sole right) the correct numbers of the players, also their weights and heights. As the numbers are being frequently changed, the public is advised to keep posted by studying only those in the "Record."

* * *

When the good people of Melbourne and Geelong—from the aged parent to the perky schoolboy in the lowest form—pulled aside the window-blinds on Saturday morning, they were not satisfied with the weather outlook. They wanted as fine a day as one could wish for, because of the importance of the afternoon's engagement. They desired to see the battle fought under the best of conditions. As it turned out, the conditions were level enough, although they were not pleasant,

Rain and hail pelted down just before the battle began. And how grateful was the expression on the faces of quite a number of club secretaries (looking forward to dividends) when they looked around and surveyed the dense crowd of people. The League secretary (Mr. E. L. Wilson) voiced the sentiment of the Leaguers when he remarked, "How fortunate that shower did not occur at 1 o'clock instead of 3!" It was indeed fortunate. Anyhow, the ground was crowded before the fall, and that was a consolation.

* * *

It was an eager crowd and enthusiastic—fine supporters of a grand game. To see them standing under umbrellas, with the rain lashing down, was a proof of the popularity of football.

* * *

That crowd numbered 40,133, and of those 24,451 paid for admission £1540 3s. 6d. Geelong and Carlton members and members of the Melbourne Cricket Club did not contribute on the day. Last year the Collingwood and South Melbourne first semi-final was witnessed by 43,575, and the takings were announced as £1624 6s. 6d. The second semi-final was Essendon v. Carlton. The crowd numbered 40,669, and the takings were £1397 17s. 3d.

Geelong's great strength and long run of successes at Geelong against metropolitan teams are well known. Metropolitan men assert that the railway journey, which means overcrowded cars and rush and bustle, was responsible in a measure for their defeats. Then Geelong had to come to town in their turn, and did not as a rule reproduce the home brand of football.

* * *

Therefore it was universally agreed that, in order to do well, the journey must be made earlier to avoid hurry and anxiety. South Melbourne hit upon the idea, went to Geelong by the morning train, had plenty of time there before the starting time, and beat their opponents.

* * *

What was good enough for South Melbourne was not too good for Geelong, and on Saturday they left their city earlier than usual, and arrived in the metropolis in time to have a quiet dinner. They took a tram from Spencer-street to Spring-street, and then strolled down to the ground. They looked like a Cook's touring party going through the gardens, with Mr. Charlie Brownlow, their genial secretary, as the leader of the excursion.

* * *

Geelong people had visions of the premiership, which they have not won since 1886—ten years before the League was formed—and they came to Melbourne in thousands by several special trains to see the Pivot lads defeat Carlton. It was a big task to expect, but, nevertheless, it was expected, especially as it was rumoured that Carlton's injured players were not sure to start. The defeat was for Geelong, but they went down nobly.

* * *

One thing that struck me particularly was the warmth of the applause that rang out when Geelong made their appearance. They were cheered most heartily all round the ground, Carltonians joining in with almost as much heartiness as any section of the crowd. It was a tribute to the Geelong men, and a remarkable proof of the popularity they have won among the people of Melbourne.

The fine old warriors of Carlton also received a great welcome. They looked great and moved about, easily and calmly, until called on to begin the game. They are more used to finals than are the Geelong lads.

* * *

It was noticed that the brilliant little half-back, Andy McDonald, was not with Carlton. He was unable, owing to a knock a week previously, to take his share in the battle against Geelong. But the swarthy form of Jack Bacquie was seen in the colours for the first time for many a day. He has been doing well at Seymour, and came down to lend a hand in the finals.

* * *

To the great delight of Geelong's supporters, Orchard was seen on the half-forward line again. McLean was out to make place for him.

* * *

Right at the outset Geelong assumed the aggressive, and in less time than it takes to tell they went over the line, Orchard snapping a small point. Then they were beaten off along the right, and Carlton driving straight for goal, gained the sixer through Gardiner. Taking the quarter right through, the play was pretty even. It was at times marred to a slight extent by overeagerness and impetuosity on both sides. One conspicuous feature was the consistent brilliance and effectiveness of McGregor in the centre, and the activity and watchfulness of Gardiner up forward. It was not until the latter had spun a brace of goals that Geelong's skipper called Healey back to keep an eye on the wandering laddie.

Carlton ended the first quarter with 3.3 to 2.4.

* * *

There can be no two opinions about the game in the second term. Geelong were easily the masters in general play, but as for goal-kicking they were a dismal failure. They were banging for sixers and missing with disconcerting frequency. Their forwards were decidedly off, and instead of a lead of half a dozen points at the interval they should have had at least a four goals' advantage. Their register was 3.13 to Carlton's 3.7.

* * *

"A cake walk for Geelong." This was the tip of a Melbourne man who was anxious to see the flag flying over the Corio Bay ground. But he was out in his prophecy, for Carlton improved and worked well together. They regained the lead in the third quarter, and were five points ahead at the final change.

* * *

The cakewalkers in the last term were Carlton. They waded in and finished their opponents off completely. The experience of the older men was too much for the youth of Geelong.

Carlton packed up five goals to one, and came out decisive winners with 10.11 to 4.19.

* * *

The crowd was disappointed in seeing Geelong, who began so well, fall away so far before the finish.

* * *

At the same time they were generous in their appreciation of the dogged determination of the winners, who thoroughly deserved the victory.

* * *

I saw the Prime Minister (Mr. Fisher) coming away from the ground after the game. "What did you think of it?" I asked him. "A very good game," said he; "but Geelong's forwards were weak, and they were 'fin-nicking' a lot." It is a Scotch expression, but it fitted the case admirably.

* * *

By the way, watching a football match is the Prime Minister's recreation during the winter months. He is not an Australian by birth, but nobody has Australian interests more at heart than he has.

* * *

Elder, the field umpire, has had charge of many big matches, but I have often seen him to better advantage than on Saturday. He missed many breaches, and gave what (from the distance) should not have been free kicks.

* * *

Carlton was the heavier team by a few pounds.

* * *

The long and the short on Saturday—Jim Marchbank, 6ft. 2in., and V. Gardiner, 5ft. 5¾in.

* * *

Marshall, the Geelong follower, was the heaviest man playing on Saturday. He tips the beam at 14 st. 1 lb.—just 16 ozs. more than Jack Wells, the Carlton captain.

* * *

Carlton's back division was again powerful on Saturday. Paddy Mills, Billy Dick and Barningham were immense, and Gillespie was as watchful as usual between the posts.

* * *

The centre star, around which others moved, was again McGregor. It has become a habit for him this season to stand out as the Carltonian whose work pleases the multitude as much as that of anyone else. Slater was not in the hunt with him.

* * *

Joe Slater was injured in the match. His nose was broken.

* * *

George Bruce, on the wing, played more of a solid than dashing game, but Clancy, on the other wing, was good up to half-time, when an injured leg slowed him down. He went half-forward, and Challis played on the wing without distinguishing himself.

* * *

When Bacquie was stationed half-forward, Brownlee, the Geelong man, had the call over him.

* * *

The old warhorse, Jim Marchbank, sailed in wholeheartedly while rucking it, and a crack on the boko had the effect of reddening the organ with his gore.

* * *

In the early stages Geelong's ruck—Marshall, Watt (who is called John), and Heinz—more than held their own against Wells, Wilson and Valentine, but subsequently the honours were with Carlton.

Moran, Gardiner and Green were a lively and effective trio of forwards. Little Vin nabbed three goals, and Green gained four.

* * *

Martin, on the back line, gave a brilliant exhibition of defensive work. Geelong people considered it his best game of the season.

* * *

Healey, Scown, Heinz, Gray and C. Armstrong were conspicuous in the Geelong colours.

* * *

The goal-kickers and the order in which the sixers were scored were:—Gardiner, Martini, Martini, Green, Gardiner, Grigg, Green, Green, Wells, Clancy, Green, Healey, Gardiner, Clancy.

* * *

The necessity for an umpire to keep a bright lookout on the play was demonstrated during the second quarter. A free kick was given to a Geelong man. Alex. Eason, thinking that it was for Freeman, hit it over to him. Meanwhile Elder had gone on and did not notice the movement. Gardiner had collared the ball and dashed towards goal with it. He was pulled up by the whistle, and Elder bounced the ball. It looked as if Geelong had thus been deprived of their free kick, owing to a mistake that should not have happened. Gardiner looked like the man who found he had missed Tatts. by one figure.

* * *

Those who have been endeavouring to decry the management of football this season were confounded on Saturday by the huge attendance and the enthusiasm of the people, which went to show that there never was more confidence in the administration by the League than is felt at the present time. And the public is keen to appreciate that fact, notwithstanding the weak assertions to the contrary by one or two disgruntled people whose opinions clearly carry no weight, and whose gibes are merely so much hot air.

* * *

South Melbourne will be without Ricketts to-day. It was considered too risky to play him, on account of his injured leg. Mullaly may also be an absentee. R. Deas plays full back, Caldwell half-forward, and, if Mullaly does not play, Bower will be in his old place in the centre. Mortimer has a bad leg, and will not be playing.

* * *

Essendon will be strongly represented to-day. L. Armstrong will be in a new place on the field—viz., full back. O'Shea is on the wing again, and Ogden, after his enforced absence, also resumes his place in the 18.

Dimensions of League Grounds.

The dimensions of the League grounds are as under:—Melbourne, 186 yds. by 168 yds.; South Melbourne, 189 yds. by 154 yds.; Carlton, 190 yds. by 170 yds.; East Melbourne, 187 yds. by 147 yds.; Fitzroy, 170 yds. by 155 yds.; Richmond, 168 yds. by 148 yds.; Collingwood, 182 yds. by 156 yds.; St. Kilda, 186 yds. by 154 yds.; Geelong, 190 yds. by 151 yds.

Longest Kicks.

Place Kick.—Dave McNamara, 84 yards, at St. Kilda Ground, 3rd April, 1909; P. Ellin, 75 yards, St. Kilda Ground, April, 1909; H. Lever, 72 yards, St. Kilda Ground, 1909; C. Robbins, 69 yards 2 feet, Upper Reserve, Bendigo, 24th May, 1900.

* * *

Place Kick, Rugby.—74 yards, E. Doyle, August, 1903, Ireland. J. Angus, 71 yards, Sydney, April, 1892.

The BEST and only the BEST !

WHAT CHAMPIONS REQUIRE.

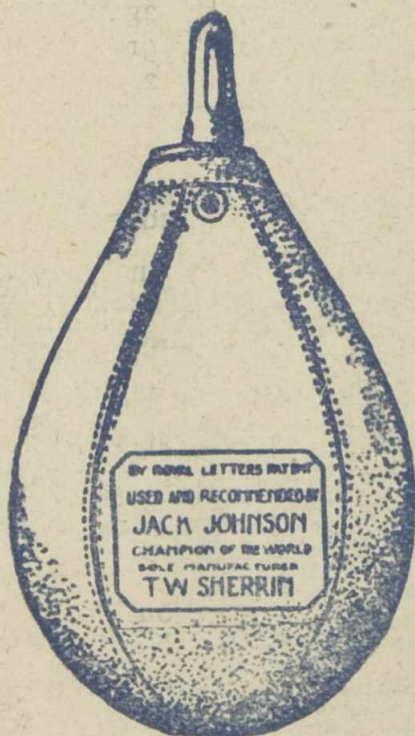

It is only natural that for the great and glorious Australian game the best of Australian goods should be manufactured by the best Australian maker.

T.W. SHERRIN

Acknowledged by all sporting institutions and champions,

BOXING, CRICKET, and FOOTBALL,

as the leading manufacturer of Australia. Testimonials as to the superiority of his sporting goods have been unhesitatingly given by the world's champions who have visited Australia from time to time during the last twenty years.

JACK JOHNSON, the world's champion pugilist, pronounces Sherrin's boxing gloves and punching balls better than any he has used in England or America. And the champion has used many in fighting his way to fame.

DICK LEE, who was for years the champion goal-kick, bears testimony to the superiority of the Sherrin ball.

The Footballers' Favorite.

The footballer has yet to be found who does not give the palm to the Sherrin ball as the best that can be kicked. The "Kangaroo" brand on each is the trade mark registered throughout the Commonwealth.

League clubs prefer the "Kangaroo" brand, and no club is considered complete without its supply of Sherrin's best.

THE AUSTRALASIAN FOOTBALL COUNCIL.

ever since the Interstate matches have been played have insisted on the use of the "Kangaroo" brand ball, and in the great carnival in Adelaide last year the pleasure of the players was increased by the knowledge that they were using balls from the Sherrin factory.

SHERRIN'S ATHLETIC GOODS

have won distinction at international and Interstate industrial exhibitions, among the awards being the Prize Medal and First Order of Merit in Adelaide, 1881; First Order of Merit, Melbourne, 1879-80; and the Diploma of Merit, Centennial Exhibition, 1888-89.

Obtainable at all the leading Sporting-goods Warehouses throughout Australia.

STOTT'S BUSINESS and CORRESPONDENCE COLLEGES

THE LARGEST, BEST ORGANISED and MOST SUCCESSFUL in AUSTRALIA.

The demand for our graduates is greater than the supply. Our students secure all the best positions because they are trained to efficiency and properly equipped for starting a business career. Business men have no time to train their assistants, hence the importance of a good training. We give you the preparation necessary to ensure success, and if you are unable to attend the College in person, we can give you just the same careful and individual instruction through our CORRESPONDENCE COLLEGE which brings a thorough education RIGHT TO YOUR HOME no matter where you live.
